

For Additional Information:
Contact: Karen Koenes
Ph: 714-432-8700 X. 339
Fax: 714-546-7451
Email: kkoenes@hkclaw.com

June 8, 2010

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

“Hart, King & Coldren Expands to Include Two Associates”

SANTA ANA, CA – Eric M. Willens has recently joined the law firm of Hart, King Coldren as an associate in the transactional practice group. Mr. Willens has extensive experience with representation of public and private clients in a wide range of corporate and securities transactions, including corporate and LLC formations; partnership and shareholder agreements; director and shareholder meetings and minutes; venture capital and private equity financing transactions; mergers and acquisitions; general business and commercial contract preparation, review and negotiation; and private placement memorandums and other securities offerings.

Most recent, Mr. Willens was a sole practitioner and prior to this was with several prominent California law firms where he counseled companies from original business plans through initial public offerings and beyond. He has served as general counsel to many clients and their boards of directors, helping to develop and execute their business strategies and advising them on day-to-day legal and strategic issues.

Mr. Willens earned his B.A. from University of the Pacific in Sacramento, California and his J.D. from the University’s McGeorge School of Law. He may be reached at 714-432-8700 x. 309 or via email at ewillens@hkclaw.com.

Hart, King & Coldren is also pleased to include first year attorney, Darrell P. White, to the firm’s business litigation group where he will specialize in business, intellectual property and real estate litigation.

Mr. White earned his law degree at Chapman University School of Law. Prior to passing the State Bar exam, he was employed with the firm as a law clerk. Mr. White earned his undergraduate degree from University of California, Los Angeles.

Mr. White previously held positions with several companies in which he gained broad ranging experience including assisting in high profile investigations and oversight with a top professional sports body, researching and preparing music licensing agreements for an international media company and working in the intellectual property division of a Fortune 500 company.

He may be reached at 714-432-8700 x. 325 or via email at dwhite@hkclaw.com.

“We are pleased to welcome our two talented associates to Hart, King & Coldren and are confident that their legal skills and experience will provide enhanced services to our clients,” said Senior Partner William Hart.

####

About Hart, King & Coldren

Since its founding in 1982, Hart, King & Coldren has earned its reputation as one of Southern California’s top mid-sized law firms. HK&C represents clients in matters involving business litigation, real estate litigation, professional design and construction, manufactured housing, business and real estate transactions, homeowner associations and the automotive aftermarket manufacturing industry.

For more information, please visit us at www.hkclaw.com or contact the Client Relations Director, Karen Koenes, at 714.432.8700 x 339 or via email at kkoenes@hkclaw.com.

####